

Click to prove you're human

Paper plate restaurant reviews

Reviews on Tripadvisor undergo strict checks before being published. The platform's automated system collects information such as what, where, when, and how a review was written to ensure it adheres to community guidelines. If the system detects any potential issues, the review may be rejected or sent for manual review by content specialists who work around the clock to maintain high-quality reviews. A traveler recently had an excellent experience at Paper Plate in Richmond. Without a reservation, they were greeted warmly and seated promptly, with attentive service throughout their meal. The menu was extensive and beautifully presented, with each dish expertly prepared and flavorful. This reviewer raved about the Vietnamese food, stating it was among the best they've ever tasted. Another traveler praised Paper Plate for its "brilliant" food and inviting atmosphere. They noted warm service, minimalist decor, and exceptional dishes like the lamb shank red curry. A third reviewer lauded the restaurant's attentive service, varied menu, and impressive wine list. A fourth reviewer raved about their experience at Paper Plate, citing lovely service, great atmosphere, and delicious cuisine. They particularly enjoyed the Pho and a refreshing mocktail made with coconut, mint, and Lychee. Paper Plate's comeback from lockdown has been impressive. The restaurant offers excellent food, particularly its Imperial spring rolls and peppered beef. The service is also top-notch, with staff providing helpful advice on ingredients and local suppliers. A lovely setting and great dishes make it a must-visit destination for those in Melbourne. Other reviewers have praised the restaurant's Vietnamese fare with modern Australian flair, and several have mentioned that they would give it a 10/10 rating if possible. Prices are reasonable, with entrees, mains, and drinks costing around $130. Overall, Paper Plate has won over even the most discerning diners. Paper Plate - A Local Gem in Richmond This family-owned restaurant serves delicious food with great service, making it a perfect spot for families and couples alike. The atmosphere is lovely, and the prices are very reasonable. Try their scallops, chicken skewers, or tofu for a must-try experience. Our restaurant's quality control process involves automatic rejection, reviewer validation, or manual review by our team of content specialists who work around the clock to maintain high standards. We closely examine reviews posted as disputes regarding community guidelines. Learn more about our moderation policies. Paper Plate in Richmond recently impressed with excellent Vietnamese food and attentive service. The restaurant offers a wide menu and beautifully presented dishes. Guests praised the quality of the cuisine, making it one of the best they've experienced outside of Vietnam. Reviewers described Paper Plate's atmosphere as warm and inviting, with attentive staff and exceptional service. The wine list is varied, and the mocktails are unique and delicious. Many reviewers appreciated the restaurant's efforts to bounce back after the lockdown and provided kind words about their experience. I recently visited Paper Plate in Melbourne and was blown away by their Vietnamese-inspired dishes with a modern twist. The peppered beef was incredibly flavorful and exceeded expectations. I've tried other Vietnamese restaurants before, but this one truly stands out. The restaurant's setting is lovely, with stylish decorations that create a cozy atmosphere without feeling too crowded. The service was great, with friendly management who clearly care about their customers' experiences. I ordered a few dishes to share with my group, including the rockling and stir fry steak with black beans sauce. Each bite was packed with flavor, and I especially enjoyed the freshness of the Vietnamese rolls. Overall, our meal came out to around $130 for entree, two mains, and drinks. Paper Plate is definitely worth a visit if you're in Melbourne - their menu offers something for everyone, from seafood to meat-lovers' dishes. Don't miss out on trying their scallops or chicken skewers! Tripadvisor performs regular checks on reviews to ensure trust and safety standards are met. Read more about our transparency report. Perfect family-owned local restaurant serving delicious food with great service and a lovely atmosphere. Reviewers praise Paper Plate for consistently great meals, excellent service, and nice vibes. A popular Vietnamese restaurant in Melbourne offers unique dishes like egg pancake salad and crispy pork hock with sweet and sour sauce. Customers rave about Paper Plate's quality food, consistent service, and cozy atmosphere, making it an ideal spot for family gatherings and good conversations. Advisor Pierre recommends finding the perfect spot for dining at Paper Plate, which offers warm service, minimalist decor, and fantastic food, including standout dishes like lamb shank red curry. The team at Paper Plate has been working diligently to maintain their high standards of food quality and service during the pandemic. According to several reviewers, their efforts have paid off, with many raving about the "brilliant" and "fantastic" food. The restaurant's warm atmosphere and attentive staff have also received praise. One reviewer, who has visited Vietnam, was impressed by the authenticity of the Vietnamese dishes served at Paper Plate, calling it the best they've had outside of Vietnam. Another reviewer appreciated the extensive menu options and the knowledgeable service staff, who provided specific advice on ingredients and where to buy them. The reviewers' glowing reviews have been tempered with a reminder that these opinions are subjective and not necessarily representative of Tripadvisor's views or policies. The moderation team at Paper Plate continues to work closely with Tripadvisor to ensure the accuracy and trustworthiness of online reviews. The restaurant's ability to bounce back after the lockdown has also been noted, with one reviewer praising their efforts to maintain high standards despite challenging circumstances. Paper Plate has exceeded my expectations in every way, offering not only exceptional Vietnamese fare but also modern Australian flair that elevates the dishes to new heights. The stylishly decorated room provides a relaxing atmosphere, and the service is top-notch. I've had the pleasure of visiting this restaurant twice, and both times have left me wanting more. From the delicious smoked salmon in the Vietnamese rolls to the mouth-watering stir-fry steak with black beans sauce, every dish has been a revelation. The prices may be a bit steep for some, but trust me when I say it's worth every penny. With its beautiful atmosphere and excellent service, Paper Plate is a must-visit destination for anyone looking for an unforgettable dining experience. Paper Plate: A Cut Above Richmond's Vietnamese Joints We frequently dine at Paper Plate and always enjoy our meals there. Recently, we tried the pancake and crispy pork hock as mains, accompanied by rice paper rolls. This review is the subjective opinion of a Tripadvisor member and not of Tripadvisor LLC. Tripadvisor performs checks on reviews as part of their trust & safety standards. Read their transparency report to learn more. CrazyMelbourne23 contributed: Paper Plate is a little fancy Vietnamese restaurant with some flaws. The egg pancake salad can be difficult to eat, but the crispy pork hock was great, especially with sweet and sour sauce. The meat was tender, and the skin was crispy without being hard. Blessy JMelbourne10 shared a similar experience: We often visit Paper Plate, and we love it. The quality of food and service is excellent, making it an ideal spot for family time and good conversations. We also appreciate their coffee. Paper Plate stands out from Richmond's other Vietnamese joints due to its high-quality food and unique dishes. The restaurant was founded by brothers Quan and Quoc Nguyen, who have brought a new level of deliciousness to the area. Their pho is exceptional, and they offer contemporary dishes with a touch of elegance. The restaurant features an Asian-inspired menu with a variety of dishes, including pho and bun options. The menu includes starters such as crispy pancake filled with pork and prawns, soft rice paper rolls filled with lemongrass chicken, and bo la lot minced beef wrapped in betel leaf. Other dishes include caramelized pork belly clay pot, master stock-braised spatchcock, monk curry, and sweet potato and eggplant in a coconut-cream sauce. The restaurant also offers a takeaway menu and an extensive cocktail list, including options like the Mekhong Sour. The service is friendly and easy-going, making it a great option for those looking to stay and enjoy their meal.