Me And Bobby McGee

Words & Music by Kris Kristofferson & Fred Foster

G C/G G C/G G

Verse 1

Busted flat in Baton Rouge, waiting for a train

And I's feeling nearly as faded as my jeans.

Bobby thumbed a diesel down just before it rained,

G C/G

It rode us all the way to New Or - leans.

G

I pulled my harpoon out of my dirty red bandana,

C

I was playing soft while Bobby sang the blues.

Windshield wipers slapping time, I was holding Bobby's hand in mine,

We sang every song that driver knew.

D7

Nothing, don't mean nothing, honey, if it ain't free, now now.

C

And feeling good was easy, Lord, when he sang the blues,

D7

You know feeling good was good enough for me,

G

Good enough for me and my Bobby Me - Gee.

Busted flat in Baton Rouge, headin' for the trains, Feelin' nearly faded as my jeans.
Bobby thumbed a diesel down just before it rained, Took us all the way to New Orleans.
Took my harpoon out of my dirty red bandana And was blowin' sad while Bobby sang the blues, With them windshield wipers slappin' time and Bobby clappin' hands we finally sang up every song That driver knew.

Freedom's just another word for nothin' left to lose, And nothin' ain't worth nothin' but it's free, Feelin' good was easy, Lord, when Bobby sang the blues, And buddy, that was good enough for me, Good enough for me and my Bobby McGee.

From the coalmines of Kentucky to the California sun, Bobby shared the secrets of my soul, Standin' right beside me through everythin' I done, And every night she kept me from the cold. Then somewhere near Salinas, Lord, I let her slip away, She was lookin' for the love I hope she'll find, Well I'd trade all my tomorrows for a single yesterday, Holdin' Bobby's body close to mine.

Written by Kris Kristofferson, first recorded by Roger Miller Roger Miller was the first artist to have a hit with the song, peaking with it at No. 12 on the US country in his native Canada in 1970, and was also a top 10 hit in South Africa in 1971. Lightfoot sang the song after a detailed tribute to Kris Kristofferson in a CBC broadcast from the summer 1969 Charlottetown Festival. Joplin also covered the song for inclusion on her Pearl album only a few days before her death in October 1970. Kristofferson did not know she had covered it until after her death. The first time he heard her recording of it was the day after she died. Janis Joplin topped the U.S. singles chart with the song in 1971 after her death, making the second posthumous number-one single in U.S. chart history after "(Sittin' On) The Dock of the Bay" by Otis Redding. ~~~ChordPro Version UPDATED May 06, 2017 CEL~~~ Comments There are currently no comments, be the first to post one. 13825
