Milk gravy with bacon grease

This thick and creamy homemade sauce is the perfect addition to a large bowl of mashed potatoes. In collaboration with IdahoAnÃ© foods. The preparation of the Easter meal is well underway and I can guarantee that there will be a great help of mashed potatoes on our table. That being said, he will have requested from different family members for the homemade sauce in Piudgleselloni. The type of gravy that is dense and creamy, made with bacon fat and crushed crushers. I have your attention now? This next Sunday we will return home from the church and any further help in the kitchen will be necessary for the preparation of meals. I had the privilege of trying the new idahoan signature "Ã© rust mashed potatoes. The signed ruments were just released this last year and I could not wait to try it after trying their soup line. I was a bit skeptical a Mash potatoes from a package. However, after seeing the combination of potatoes, butter and real milk; now I had pure potatoes ready they were full of flavor. In less than 5 minutes, you get mashed creamy potatoes who enjoy just as if you had peeled, boiled and potatoes yourself yourself. Feed a small crowd? These packages are also resoy and are equipped with instructions for size from 4, 8 and 12. Gone with the entire package and almost divorbs everything in two sessions. I can't wait to put these potatoes on our table next weekend along with this easy homemade sauce with bacon fat. Enjoy ~ MEAGAN 1 / 4 cup of bacon of bacon 3/4 cup flour for all uses 3 full milk cups 1 teaspoon chopped pepper 1 teaspoon of spoon salt added bacon bacon a pan on a low / medium heat. Slow slowly in the flour for about 2 minutes until the tufts start to form. Pour into 1 cup of milk and mix until the sauce thickens about 3 minutes.
