His Excellency Sayed Mohammad Hussein Abdel PH.D., Governor of the Central Bank Islamic Republic of Iran, Ambassador to London, Tokyo and Ottawa shakes hands with Mr. Harold Lee Taylor after completing a formal interview in the Foreign Department Tehran May 11, 2002

Admission requirementsWeb Admin2021-04-08T18:24:36+00:00 How to Apply Fill out an application here. Official sealed transcripts of previously attended universities and colleges will be sent to the Administrative Secretary. Request two letters of recommendation sent directly to the Administrative Secretary. Submit TOEFL test results, if required. Complete an interview with an admission officer. When all the application materials are received and the entrance interview is completed, the President of the Holmes Institute makes the final decision to approve admission. After Admissions Registration and Class Attendance Students have one year from the date of admission to begin their course. From the first academic term of participation, students have 6 years to meet all the degree requirements for graduation. After one year from the date of admission, students who do not meet their admission requirements or do not register for the course must reapply to the Holmes Institute® and meet the new admission requirements and program in effect. Continuity of class and absenteeism Once admitted, students begin to register and attend classes, they must take at least one class in at least three of the four terms each academic year, except as indicated below. Students can take a quarter off, without class registration, per year, by notifying their advisor. If a student wishes or deems it necessary to take a second term discount in a given academic year, the student should discuss the situation with the student advisor and the application should be approved by the student advisor after discussion. If more time off is requested, the student may request permission for a formal leave of absence from their advisor. If approved, the Administrative Secretary and the Executive Committee are informed. That licence of absence must be agreed in advance, and may be taken for a period not exceeding one year. In Part B you will be asked to select 5 questions from 7. Each question of each exam will be in two parts: à € Part (a) asking you to show knowledge of theoretical concepts and à € "(b) Asking You to apply these ideas to an organization. The organization will be identified in a text block at the beginning of the question. Evaluation policy to be eligible to adopt this topic, students must complete all forms of evaluation and demonstrate the achievement of learning results. All assignments should be sent electronically using a text processor, loaded to Blackboard through SafeAssign. You must print and attach the full SAFEASSIGN report with the cover of the Holmes Institute to the printed assignment (print copy). The mapping presentation sheet should include the name, number, subject code and the name of the subject, the name of the teacher, the expiration date of the assignment of the teachers, the expiration date of the assignment and the delivery time. All printed copies must be sent to the designated assignment presentation facility on the campus during opening hours. The deadlines for submission are strictly enforced and the late submission incurs the penalties of 5 (five) per cent of the assessment value per calendar day, unless the focal point for matters has granted an extension and/or a special consideration prior to the assessment deadline. Unless the subject coordinator has granted an extension and/or a special consideration before the evaluation deadline, no evaluations are accepted after 14 calendar days of the expiration date or the end of the quarter for evaluations, in addition to a quarter. Gaps could also be identified and the implications discussed. D Substantial high-quality work, which demonstrates a clear understanding of the subject, which clearly identifies the relationship between the constituent elements and is discussed with a certain level of critical analysis. Work also applies abstract ideas in specific situations. CR Sound and competent work, which demonstrates a reasonable but not complete understanding of the matter. The work uses memory and paraphrases the work of others in relation to the topic. It is evident a certain basic level of critical analysis. Originality at work is rarely evident. P Work that demonstrates a satisfactory commitment to the subject in such a way that it is said that the student has a general understanding of the field. It provides an adequate basis for further study. NN Did not meet the learning objective of the topic See results of the STUDENT GRADES, including the final grade can be seen through thegrade grade Blackboard. The results of all evaluations are published within two weeks of the expected evaluation date and final review. Students wishing to appeal their brand for a specific evaluation should follow the procedures indicated at www.holmes.edu.au /undergraduate/appeals. PLAGIARISMO AND ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT Holmes Institute considers that any form of academic misconduct is the most serious. The lack of academic conduct in any form during a review is not tolerated and will be treated in accordance with the policies and procedures set out in the Holmes Institute Student Handbook (located in the Student General information Subject: HE General Study Information (HGEN HE) General Information Student Handbook 2010 v.3.pdf). Plagiarism occurs when one uses the ideas or how to express them from another person and passes them as his own work by not giving appropriate recognition (i.e., reference to the source). Any case of plagiarism shall be dealt with promptly. It is important for the student to refer his or her work properly. The College of Higher Education of the Holmes Institute uses the reference style APA (American Psychological Association). A detailed reference guide can be found in the Student Manual. I was hoping you'd be familiar with the APA reference style. BLACKBOARD USE Holmes Institute uses Blackboard as its online teaching platform and all enrolled students have access to Blackboard to view and download their conference material, ratings, important announcements on their topics and discussion rooms for selected topics. Note that it is the responsibility of the student to check Blackboard regularly. Students are expected to have seen additional conference materials and readings before class. All students are advised to become familiar with using Blackboard. The onesBlackboard are available at the Resource Center on each campus. If you have difficulties difficulties and / or using the blackboard, contact your teacher or Holmes Blackboard Helpdesk Institute at: bhhelpdesk@holmes.edu.au. Using the Resource Center and ProQuest for most subjects, students are expected to participate in additional investigation. The textbooks and teaching materials available in the Resource Center will be used à €
