Nairobi, Kenya, Nov. 20 - President Uhuru Kenyatta has asked church leaders to safeguard the integrity of places of worship, rejecting money from questionable sources. In remarks delivered on his behalf by Energy Secretary Monica Juma during the installation of the Archbishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of Nairobi, President Kenyatta said the church should remain at the forefront and support government efforts to fight graft. "Put the church continue to vibrate against corruption, impunity and other games with even greater vigour, ensuring that contaminated resources of corruption do not fight for the house of God â–" he said. President Kenyatta said the church plays a key role in encouraging voters to keep the peace and not joining protest groups that might incite violence. "The church has a key role in preaching peace, fraternal competition that does not descend through the diode and a brand of © that is plight in the eyes of God," he said. President Quenyatta's Remarks came amid critical about the government's commitment to fighting graft with a section of commentators questioning his to fight the graft after a 21-day ultimatum he gave for the accusation of individuals involved in a hand acquisition © Covid-related tip, dropped without action. It gave the ethics and anti-corruption commission (EACC) a 21-day ultimatum on August 27 to complete a probe in the process of acquisition of quaric supply authority authority (Kemsa), where individuals pocket millions of shawls in suspected medical offer offerings at the height of a national crisis triggered by the pandemic. "Following alleging allegations in Kemse, the relevant investigative agencies of our country are currently seized with the matter. However, given the convincing public interest in the subject, relevant agencies should streamline their investigations In progress and complete the same within 21 days from the date this year," he said.dvertisement. Go to keep reading. "All persons who are guilty of ongoing investigations on Covid-19 funds, should be brought to reserve, despite their Bylaws or Political Affiliation," added the President Kenyatta. He later - on August 31 "Directed the Ministry of Saude to publish details of all the acquisitions related to Cavid held Knesa. The President called the publication of information on acquisitions, including Winners of proposals as an act of transparency and an anti-appropriation measure that should be adopted by all public entities. â–"also Directly that the Ministry of Saude, in the next 30 days, It must present a transparent, open and mechanism through which all proposals and acquisitions made by Kemsa are available online - he ordered. President Kenyatta noted that it increased "transparency through the use of technology" would support the efforts to ensure "the confidence of our people that placed them in institutions are capable of managing the resources of the quaritary taxpayer , in addition to our development partners in an open and transparent way. The way.
